Class Colors:
Dark Purple and Silver

Throughout our junior year we learned many lessons which have better prepared us for our senior year at PHS, and our future. We make many memories, both good and bad, that will last forever. We grew as individuals, but remained close as a class. We face the future knowing that we are better than ever because of our junior year. Look out world, the class of 2001 is on the way!

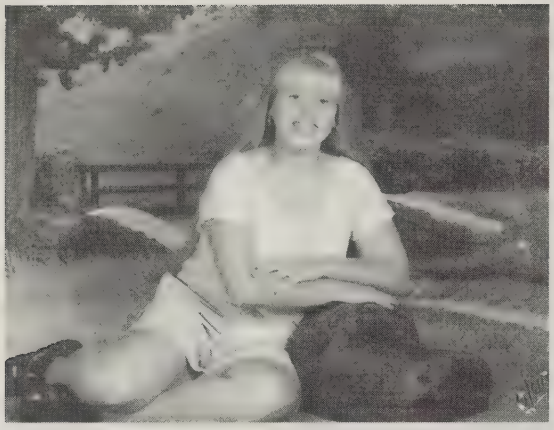
Senior Farewells



Congratulations, Monica!
You've made it to the end of your high school years. Someday you'll see them as the best years of your life. Now you will be focusing on your future. Think of your graduation as a new beginning, and an opportunity to expand your knowledge and make new friends. Just be yourself and you will be successful in all that you do. Always remember that Mom, Dad, Tera, and Jonathan love you.

Sherena,
Where has the time gone? Yesterday, a little shy girl scared to go to school; today, a beautiful, strong young lady ready to graduate and face what the world has to offer. Remember to go for what you want with open eyes and an open heart, We will always be here for you and love you with all our hearts.
We are so proud of you.
GO GET THEM, SWEETIE!

We love you,
Mom, Dad, Jeremy, and Dakota

Dale,
Congratulations.
We are proud of you.
We love you.

Love,
your family

Michael,
We are so proud of you and all you have accomplished through the years. Focus on your goals in life and have faith you can achieve anything you wish. May God bless you always.

We love you,
Mom, Dad, and Katie

Jamie,
It seems like only yesterday when you climbed up on that big yellow bus for your first day of kindergarten at Gary Elementary. Now you are a big senior at Pocahontas High School. We only wanted you to do your best then, as well as now. We wish for you love and happiness in whatever you choose to do with the rest of your life.

Love,
Mom, Dad, Zac, and Buttons

Growing Up
I'm torn each day between relief
And just a tiny hint of grief.
Although I do enjoy my sleep,
A part of me would like to keep
My babe from growing up too fast.
I want each day to last and last.
But that is just my silly heart
And it makes up just one small part.
For in my mind I do accept
And know that babies can't be kept.
I only hope one day she'll know
It cost a lot to let her grow.
— Kathleen Y. Bergero

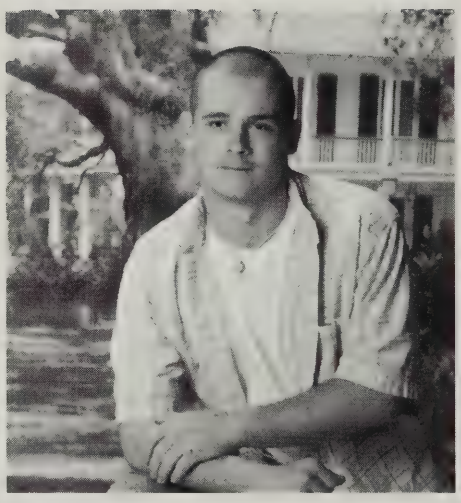
Amber, We are very proud of you and love you very much!
Dad and Mom

Cheryl
Congratulations! We are so proud and wish only the best for you.

We love you.
Mom, Dad, Daniel, and Brooke

Derrick,
Congratulations! Where has the time gone? It seems like only yesterday when you were anxiously waiting for your first bus ride. Now you're graduating in the new millennium, "2000". I've heard that childhood is something we spend the rest of our life trying to overcome. Beginnings are scary, endings are usually sad, and it's the middle that counts the most. Just remember to always keep the hope. I'm so very proud of you.

Love,
Mom



LeAnne,
We are so proud of you! You have become a lovely, caring young lady. We wish you lots of happiness and success for your future. May God always bless you and keep you. We love you very much. You are a wonderful daughter and sister. Always keep that beautiful smile!

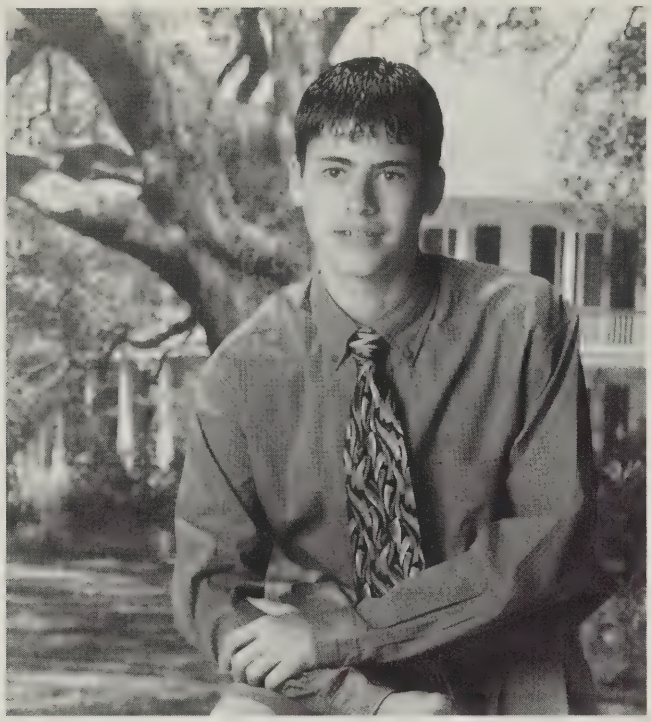
Love,
Mom, Dad, and April

Rena,
You have filled our lives with so much joy. We want you to always remember that wherever life takes you, you are still our precious daughter. We are proud of you and hope that all of your dreams come true!

We love you,
Mom and Dad

You were six months old and full of fun.
With a blink of my eye, you were suddenly one.
There were so many things we were going to do,
But I turned my back and you turned two.
At two, you were dependent on me,
But independence took over when you turned three.
Your third birthday, another year I tried to ignore
But when I lit the candles, there weren't three, but four.
Four was the year you really strived,
Why, look at you now, you're already five.
Now you are ready for books and for rules
This is the year you will go to school.
The big day came, you were anxious to go,
We walked to the bus, going oh, so slow.
As you climbed aboard and waved goodbye
I felt a lump in my throat and tears stung my eyes.
Time goes by so fast, it's hard to believe
That just yesterday you were here with me.
And tomorrow when the bus brings you home,
And you jump to the ground,
You'll be wearing your cap and graduation gown.
So I'm holding to these moments and cherishing them daily,
Because the next time I look,
I'll behold my grown baby.

Misty,
We wish you success in all you do, but most of all we wish happiness for you.
Love you forever!
Mom, Dad, and Angel

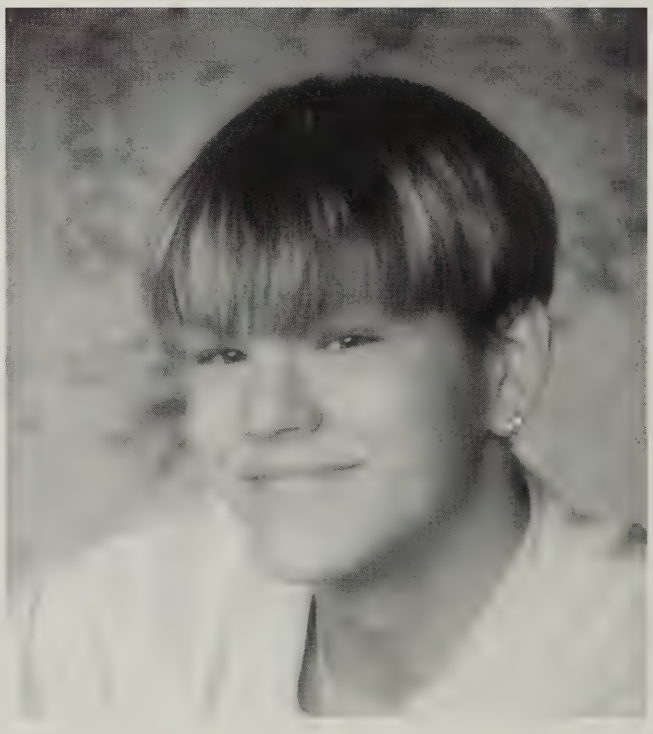


Congratulations, Scotty! We're so proud of you! We consider ourselves very fortunate to have watched you grow up into a fine young man. We pray God will continue to bless you with wisdom, love, and happiness in all that you decide to do.

We love you,
Mom, Dad, and Crissy

Yo, Beej!
As you graduate from high school, we just want to take a moment to express what you mean to us. You have achieved the first step to a life that is fulfilling and unlimited. Since your days in elementary school, you have shown us what true tolerance is. Your life thus far has been an example of devotion and perseverance. The world that awaits you is filled with opportunity and excitement. Travel far and do those things your heart desires. Remember when things in life obscure your view look within yourself to find the strength to go on. We love you and wish for you the very best that life has to offer.

Dad, Mom, and Willie

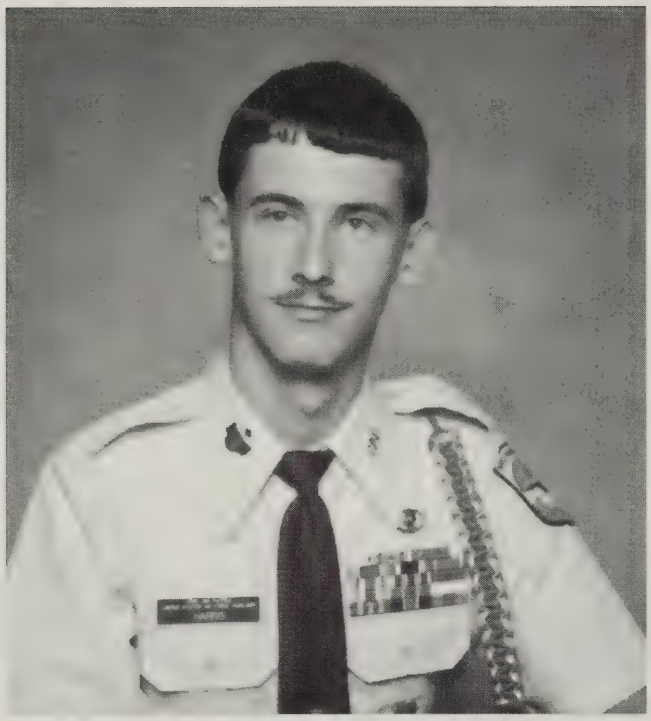


David,
It seems like yesterday that you were only 4 and starting preschool (cute picture, huh?). The time has really flown by for us. We're very proud of the young man you have grown into.
Congratulations, best wishes, and much happiness.

We love you!
Mom and Dad

Kate,
You have grown from a precious infant into a self-confident, beautiful, compassionate young woman. I thank God for allowing me to be part of your life and for the blessing of having you as part of mine. As you begin this new chapter, put Him first and know that you always have a choice in any situation. I present to you the world and give you my unconditional love to take with you.

Your best friend,
Mom



Charlie,
You are that special person that has brought much happiness to my life. You have made my life complete. I am very proud of the fine young man you have turned out to be. No matter what obstacles life throws your way, you always find a way to turn it into a positive thing and continue on. No matter what you choose to do in your life, I am positive you will soar to success. But, if you do stumble, I will always be in your heart with you to help you on with what needs to be done. You are my hero and the wind beneath my wings. You always keep me going when things are rough, you just switch roles with me and you become the parent and I the child. There is no doubt in my mind, son, that you will always be a true RANGER at heart. Love and happiness to you always, my son.

I love you,
Mom

J- Joy-
You have filled our lives with joy from the instant you were born, to this very minute.

E- Endless Pride-
Your accomplishments have filled us with pride, but we're more proud of the wonderful young woman you have evolved into.

N- Novel and Unique-
You are so special because you have always chosen to go your own way and dare to be different.

I- Intelligent-
Your intellectual abilities will take you far in life, and remember, we're with you in everything you choose to do.

F- Fun-
Remember to have fun and enjoy each and every day of your life.

E- Enthusiasm-
Your enthusiasm for life affects everyone around you, and makes people smile if you're near. Never lose that smile!

R- Radiant-
You are a radiant young lady who is beautiful on the outside, and also possesses a beauty that shines from within.

We thank God every day for blessing us with a daughter like you. We love you!

Love, Mom, Dad, and Katie

To Andy from Dad, Mom, and Susie:
Dad: You are accepted for just being you even though you are different. You are the only person I know who has a one-way ticket to heaven.
Mom: You are a friend to all who know you; a true friend indeed by bringing joy to all.
Susie: I am very proud of you having grown so much and accomplishing a great deal during your years at PHS. I started my senior year in '92 by becoming more popular than I ever was. I greatly appreciate the love, support, and welcome open arms shown to my brother.

Pocahontas High School is a wonderful school to show so much love to a truly outstanding young man. We want to thank all the teachers, students, and staff, especially Andy's best friends, Lewis and Florence Crouch, for without encouraging Andy, he never would have succeeded.

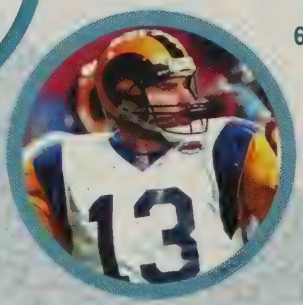
The Dallas Stars capture the Stanley Cup with Brett Hull's game-winning goal in triple overtime.

In sports, it was a year for firsts. Forty million viewers tuned in to watch the U.S. Women's Soccer Team triumph over China and Tiger Woods win six straight PGA tournaments. The Dallas Stars became the first team since the 1994 New York Rangers to win both the President's Trophy and the Stanley Cup in the same season. In addition, Lance Armstrong overcame a bout with cancer to win his first Tour de France.

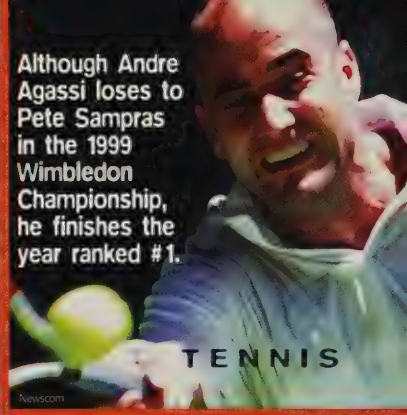
Mia Hamm and Brandi Chastain lead the team in a 5-4 narrow, penalty-kick victory over China to win the Women's World Cup.

Tiger Woods' PGA Tour winning streak comes to an end when he is beaten at the Buick Invitational.



Quarterback Kurt Warner leads the Rams to a 23-16 victory over the Tennessee Titans in Super Bowl XXXIV.

Chicago Cubs' right fielder Sammy Sosa hammered out a big 63 homeruns in 1999.



Although Andre Agassi loses to Pete Sampras in the 1999 Wimbledon Championship, he finishes the year ranked #1.

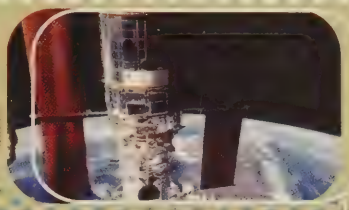
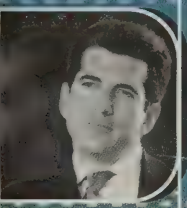
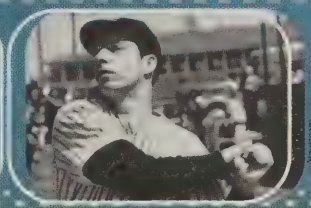
DISCOVERY•MILLENNIUM•GOODBYE•WEATHER

The year 2000 was greeted with celebrations across the globe, including a fantastic fireworks display at the Eiffel Tower and religious ceremonies in Jerusalem. Looking back on 1999, we see a year filled with hope for the future, but also a year plagued by war and natural disaster. The conflict in Serbia kept the world on the edge of its seat, while earthquakes, tornadoes and winter storms focused our attention on international relief efforts. In 1999-2000, we also said goodbye to some of the world's most beloved celebrities including John F. Kennedy Jr., Walter Payton and Charles Schulz.







WEATHER

The century came to a close with an upsurge of natural disasters. Hurricane Floyd caused $4.2 billion worth of damage on the East Coast while snowstorms crippled regions of the Northeast and Midwest. Internationally, earthquakes killed thousands in Turkey, Columbia and Taiwan.

DISCOVERY

The Hubble Telescope, Earth's orbiting eye to the heavens, beamed back pictures of new planets and nebulas, while kinks in the NASA Mars Polar Lander mission delayed hopes of discovering more about the mysterious red planet.

MILLENNIUM

While some stockpiled Y2K supplies and safeguarded their computers against the "millennium bug," others rang in the new century with fireworks, parties and religious celebrations. While merchandise branding the date 01.01.00 filled stores, millennium countdown clocks were seen everywhere from billboards to post offices.

GOODBYE

As we said goodbye to the century, we also said goodbye to some of the world's most beloved celebrities. John F. Kennedy Jr. was killed in a private plane crash while Charles Schulz passed away on the night before his last "Peanuts" comic strip was to be published in Sunday papers around the world. Sports legends Walter Payton, Joe DiMaggio and Tom Landry also left us this year.

MUSIC

BACKSTREET BOYS

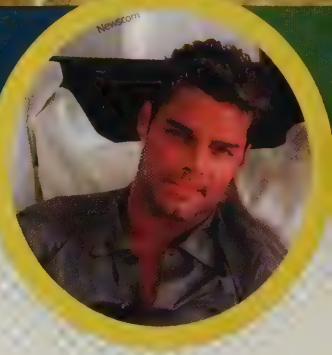
The Backstreet Boys release their smash album "Millennium" and take home the 1999 American Music Award® for Favorite Pop/Rock Band/Duo/Group.

JENNIFER LOPEZ

Latina actress and singer Jennifer Lopez debuts her pop album "On the 6" scoring a dance hit with "If You Had My Love."

FAITH HILL/TIM MCGRAW

The country couple both receive nominations at the 1999 American Music Awards. Faith Hill's album "Breathe" debuts at #1 on the Billboard Top 200.



RICKY MARTIN

"Livin' La Vida Loca" and "She's All I Ever Had" take Ricky's first English album multi-platinum.

BRITNEY SPEARS

"Boy Bands" and Latin superstars lead the 1999-2000 music scene. 'N SYNC and Backstreet Boys keep fans screaming for their good looks and slick dance moves. Ex-Menudo vocalist Ricky Martin wows audiences with his first English album, and actress/singer Jennifer Lopez scores big with her own first album "On the 6." The biggest success story of the year, however, is former Mouseketeer Britney Spears' meteoric rise to fame via her debut LP "...Baby One More Time."

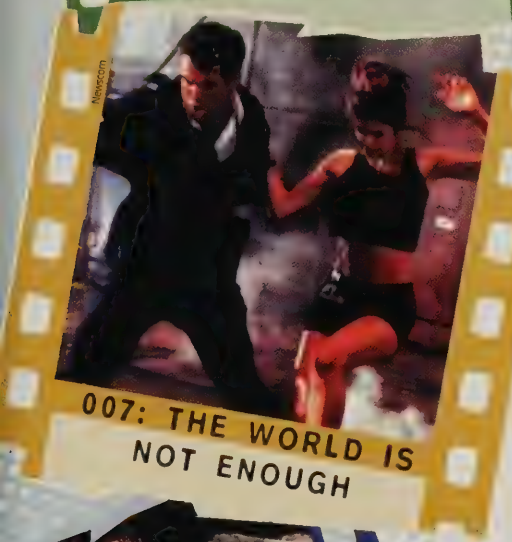
These cool cowgirls continue to enjoy the success of their breakthrough album "Wide Open Spaces."

DIXIE CHICKS

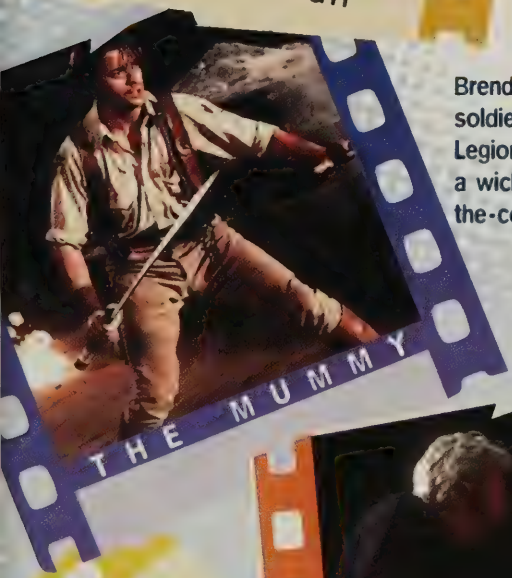
TLC returns to the hip-hop scene with "Fan Mail," featuring the singles "Come On Down" and "No Scrubs."

TLC

Comedian Adam Sandler tries his hand at parenting to impress Joey Lauren Adams. Co-stars include Cole and Dylan Sprouse and SNL buddy Rob Schneider.

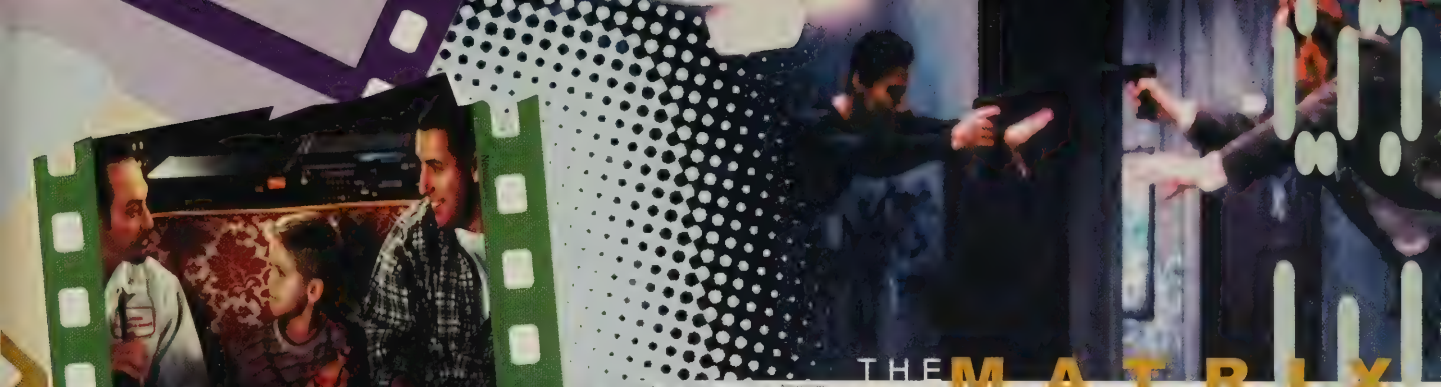


Returning as 007, Pierce Brosnan and beauty Denise Richards carry on the Bond legacy in this 19th installment of the films.



Brendan Fraser stars as a soldier in the Foreign Legion who helps unearth a wicked curse in turn-of-the-century Egypt.

Richard Gere and Julia Roberts reunite in this heartwarming love story about a skittish bride-to-be.



Incredible special effects and kung-fu fighting make this sci-fi thriller an instant classic. Keanu Reeves trained for months to pull off moves like this.

George Lucas makes history again with the 1999 release of "Star Wars: Episode 1 - The Phantom Menace." Star Wars fans waited in line days before the premiere in hopes of being one of the first to see the prequel.

"10 Things I Hate About You," a remake of The Taming of the Shrew, introduces newcomer Julia Stiles as a high school student who presents a challenge to her suitor Heath Ledger.

Keanu Reeves stars as a 21st century hacker in "The Matrix." This ground-breaking science fiction film excites audiences with computer-generated effects and superbly choreographed fight scenes.

Natalie Portman, Liam Neeson, and Ewan McGregor star in the highly anticipated prequel to the original Star Wars trilogy.

TIME OF YOUR LIFE

In a "Party of Five" spin-off, Jennifer Love Hewitt's character, Sara, moves from San Francisco to New York, striking out on her own in search of love, success and her estranged father.

E. R.

Julianna Marguilies, winner of four consecutive Emmy nominations for her role as head nurse, Carol Hathaway, enjoys the fifth season, with the rest of the "E.R." cast.

WHO WANTS TO BE A MILLIONAIRE

Contestants, chosen by a call-in selection process, compete to win increasing amounts of money up to $1,000,000. Regis Philbin coins the phrase of the year with "Is that your final answer?"

FRIENDS

As the leadoff series on NBC's "Must See TV" lineup, "Friends" continues to enjoy ratings success after six seasons, reaching an audience of 23.5 million people each week.

STARK RAVING MAD

Neil Patrick Harris (Doogie Howser, M.D.) stars as Henry McNeely, a young book editor who is thrust into the chaotic, and often hilarious, world of a bestselling horror writer.

7TH HEAVEN

Featuring cast members Jessica Biel and Barry Watson, the WB Network's wholesome "7th Heaven" continues to follow the trials and tribulations of the Camden family.

Starring Jason Behr and Shiri Appleby, this sci-fi drama centers around a group of aliens, posing as teenagers, who struggle to conceal their identities while discovering what it means to be human.

The networks presented us with a dazzling variety of shows, many of them teen-oriented. The WB Network led the way with "Buffy the Vampire Slayer," "Dawson's Creek" and newcomers, "Roswell" and "Popular." Jennifer Love Hewitt ventured out on her own, tackling the concrete jungle of New York City in "Time Of Your Life." Animated sitcom "The Simpsons" remained popular while cartoonist Matt Groening's newest series, "Futurama," gained a wider audience. Finally, talk show personality Regis Philbin crossed over to game shows asking the country, "Who Wants To Be A Millionaire?"
